

Islip, NY – Islip Town Councilman Gene Parrington recently welcomed home Petty Officer First Class Robert Carrozzo of the United States Navy, who has just completed his third tour of duty in Afghanistan. The ceremony is part of the Hometown Heroes Program, which honors local soldiers when they return from overseas.

Robert is a combat veteran and member of the 1st Cavalry, Division 17. In addition to his military service, he serves as a volunteer firefighter with the West Babylon Fire Department.
